ABOUT MATRIX ENERGETICS

Connie Shaw, Jim Wright and the Quantum Wave Team have been personally trained in the remarkable Matrix Energetics process by its founder, internationally-known Richard Bartlett, ND, DC, who is an author, workshop facilitator and profoundly gifted healer and speaker. He has trained tens of thousands of people in Matrix in the US, Japan and Europe. Hundreds of thousands of catastrophically ill or injured people have made full recoveries through his method. His two most well-known books are "The Physics of Miracles," "Matrix Energetics," and the how-to guide, "The Matrix Energetics Experience."

WHAT DO THE QUANTUM TECHNOLOGIES DO?

Matrix Energetics and Quantum Gazing™ have the potential, depending upon the receptivity of attendees, to collapse the waveform of persistently-held, but unconscious beliefs in unworthiness, poverty, illness or injury.

Countless people in scores of countries have reported becoming empowered through the remission of hundreds of limiting illnesses, injuries, handicaps and beliefs, including the inability to hear, to see, to walk, to have relationships, to hold a job, to stay healthy and balanced, to pay bills, to function in society, to have self-confidence, to let go of grievances, to be truly happy, to expand intuitive abilities, to deepen compassion, and so forth.

Connie Shaw and the Quantum Wave Team say that they are NOT the Doer, but merely serve as doorways to surprises and miracles. They further say, “We are nothing, we know nothing, we do nothing. But the Creator knows and does the necessary in perfect Divine timing.” This voluntary service work is thrilling to us since we get to meet wonderful people and to see some amazing things, which bring joy to our hearts and even deeper meaning to our lives.”
